FAIRNESS

IT'S NOT FAIR

The quality of being reasonable, right and just

Children were given the situation:

A stormy sea, a damaged boat, full of passengers, about to sink at any moment...

A helicopter, which can take only one passenger at a time...

In what order would they save the passengers?

When we've made a decision, like sharing sweets, leaving someone out of a game or saving passengers, can we find good reasons for our actions?

Have we considered that others may have different ideas and/or opinions?

Have we considered the feelings of others?

How did we arrive at a decision?

Fairness is a part of God's character. Isaiah 11:5, "For He will be clothed with fairness and with truth."

Life is not always fair. Ecclesiastes 9:11, "Again I looked throughout the earth and saw that the swiftest person does not always win the race, nor the strongest man the battle, and that wise men are often poor, and skilful men are not necessarily famous."
