

Values Education

Newsletter March 2013

An intense feeling of deep affection

A deep romantic attachment to someone

A great interest and pleasure in something

So far, we have reflected on several values; respect, peace, determination and tolerance. This month is the turn of Love.

When asked, this is what the children had to say:

When you are loved, it feels like you belong to each other, it feels like you're part of a family and it makes you smile; others need to feel the same.

You feel warm and confident when someone loves you

You could show someone you love them by being there for them, helping them when they get hurt, always caring for them.

Love is so powerful because even if people are bad, we still love them!

Love is a strong feeling, to know there are people who will always be in our hearts is wonderful.

Love is so powerful because it holds people together – wherever they are.

Think about

*Lord, make us instruments of your peace,
Where there is wrongdoing, let us show
forgiveness;*

Where there is doubt, give us faith;

Where there is despair, give us hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

Where there is hatred, let there be love;

...love is something if you give it away...

...you end up having more