Friendship Quiz

1. List a few teachers who have helped your journey through school.
2. Name three friends who have helped you through a difficult time.
3. Think of a few people who have made you feel appreciated and special.
4. Name four people who have taught you something worthwhile.
5. Think of five people you enjoy spending time with.
6. Name six heroes whose stories have inspired you.

People who make a difference in your life are not necessarily the most powerful ones or those with the most money or awards; they are the ones that care.

A good read...

Badger's down in the dumps. Not even visits from his friends, Mole, Squirrel, and Rabbit, can cheer him up. Then Mole comes up with a plan to show Badger how loved and appreciated he is. A big Awards Ceremony is held -- and Badger is named "Most Loved No Matter What His Mood." Soon Badger's bad mood is gone -- and he's learned the importance of good friends!

John chapter 15 v 15-17

Jesus said to his disciples 'I no longer call you servants but I call you friends. You did not choose me; I chose you'

Our families are given to us whether we like them or not but we choose our friends. Jesus chose his disciples to be his friends because he loved them and wanted to share his life with them, but he also wanted them to be friends with each other – to love each other, to care for each other, to share both the good times and the bad and to look out for each other.

The only way to have a good friend is to be one...
